INAUGURAL ADDRESS

OF MAYOR BENJAMIN F. DRAKE, MARCH 28, 1905,

Gentlemen of the Council:

First of all I desire to express my appreciation of the confidence reposed in me by my fellow citizens by calling me to assume the responsible duties of mayor of our city. I pledge them, and you, gentlemen of the council, that I will give to the duties of the office whatever ability I possess, and will in every way possible protect the interests of our city, and to this end I ask your hearty support.

The various departments of our city government during the past year, appear to have been managed prudently, and as their reports have been published I shall not at this time review them. Eleven members of the present council were members of the council last year, and must be familiar with the needs of our city. You will have before you the recommendation of the finance committee of last year, who are familiar with the city's finances, and it will be worthy of your consideration. Let us appropriate what money is necessary to carry on the various departments of our city government, and when the various amounts are once appropriated, let us keep the expenditures within the appropriations.

It should be the duty of this council to do everything possible to encourage our manufacturers to rebuild the mills, and the citizens their homes, so cruelly destroyed by fire.

While I shall not make any recommendation at this time I deem it proper to call the attention of the council and our citizens to the brown-tail moth plague, which must interest us all, as it may call for special legislation in the near future, as it has already been considered wise by our sister cities and towns.

The report of the Board of Public Works should receive your consideration, and means should be provided to continue the present improvements they have commenced on Elm and Water streets. The rebuilding of the Perley canal across Main street I believe is a very important matter, and I hope this council will take early action to ascertain if some arrangement cannot be made between the Laconia Car Company Works and the city to this end. The canal should be rebuilt before Main street is paved or concreted to the railroad tracks, an improvement that will be called for in the near future.

Gentlemen of the council, the money we exact from the people to run our municipal affairs belongs to them, and we are only their servants to see that it is judiciously expended. As business men, let us do this in a business way, so that at the end of our official term, no reflections can be cast upon us.

Gentlemen of the council, I am now ready to proceed with the business of the session.

MUNICIPAL REGULATIONS,

FOR PAYMENT OF BILLS AGAINST THE CITY.

All bills against the city must be approved by the person authorizing the charge; and unless this is done, no action can be had upon the bill by the committee on accounts and claims, and no order will be given for its payment. When the bills are certified to as above, and left with the city clerk not later than Thursday, at 12 o'clock M., preceding the last Monday of each month, they will be audited by the committee on accounts and claims, and if approved by them and allowed by the council, will be ready for payment on the following Wednesday, at the office of the city treasurer.

Meetings of the committee on accounts and claims are held on the Friday preceding the last Monday of each month, at 7.30 o'clock P. M., at the city clerk's office.

CONTRACT,

Between the City of Laconia, New Hampshire, and the Laconia Electric Lighting Company.

This agreement made and entered into this fourth day of April, 1905, between the City of Laconia, a municipal corporation duly established and existing in the County of Belknap and State of New Hampshire, acting by its mayor, Benjamin F. Drake, and its standing committee of its city council on lighting streets, consisting of John G. Quimby, Louis J. Truland and Frank H. Lougee, said mayor and said committee being duly authorized by vote of the city council of said City of Laconia to make and execute a contract for and in its behalf for the furnishing of electric street lighting as hereinafter mentioned, of the first part, and the Laconia Electric Lighting Company, a corporation duly established under the laws of the state of New Hampshire, and having its principal place of business in said City of Laconia, of the second part,

WITNESSETH:

That the said party of the second part for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, agrees for itself, its successors and assigns, at its own expense to provide and maintain during the entire period of this contract, hereinafter named, in the public streets, squares, alleys, lanes, and other public places in said City of Laconia, not less than seventy-five (75), arc electric lights of the capacity hereinafter mentioned; said arc electric lights to be increased in number at any time the city council of said City of Laconia shall so determine as hereinafter provided; said arc electric lights to be series inclosed alternating arc lamps of approximately four hundred and thirty (430) actual watt capacity at lamp terminals, and to keep the same lighted from one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) hour after sunset to thirty (30) minutes before sunrise upon every night of the year for the term of ten (10) years from the fourth day of April, 1905, in accordance with the requirements of the mayor and the standing committee on lighting streets of the city council of said City of Laconia.

Said arc electric lights shall be lighted at an earlier hour than hereinbefore stated, and without additional charge, whenever and as often as an exceptional darkness of the day, due to storm or otherwise, shall reasonably require it.

Said arc electric lights shall be hung at such places in and along the public streets, squares, alleys, lanes, and other public places in said City of Laconia as its said city council shall order.

Said party of the second part further agrees that in case the city council of said City of Laconia shall at any time see fit to increase the number of arc electric lights beyond the number hereinbefore specified, that said party of the second part will increase the number of said lights as required by said city council, and will make such extension of its lines and system as may be necessary for said additional lights without any charge or expense to said party of the first part provided that said party of the second part shall in no case be compelled to extend its lines and wires for a greater distance than one-eighth mile for one arc lamp. But this provision relating to the extension of wires shall not relate to the extending of electric wires from present terminals to The Weirs, so-called, in said Laconia.

And said party of the second part further agrees that for each increase or addition to the number of arc electric lights, the price of each such light per annum shall be the same as for each light of the original number.

Said party of the second part further agrees that the current on all circuits at all times shall be not less than six and six-tenths (6.6) amperes, and that the average voltage at each lamp shall not be more than seventy-five (75) and the minimum voltage not less than seventy (70).

Said party of the second part further agrees that the lamps for arc electric lights shall be series inclosed alternating arc lamps of some standard, modern pattern of the size known commercially as twelve hundred (1200) C. P., using four hundred thirty (430) actual watts of electrical energy at the terminals of each lamp; additional allowance being made for resistance of the lines, and for any other resistance which may be in series with the lamps, and if during the term of this contract some new lamp is invented and perfected which will supply a larger quantity and better illumination for the amount of energy used than those then in use under this contract, such lamps may be installed for those then in use, if the said parties of the first and second part mutually agree that such change is for the benefit of both parties. If such change in lamps shall involve a change of price, such change of price must be mutually agreed upon to be effective, and provided that in case of change of lamps the price to be paid by the party of the first part to the party of the second part for actual wattage shall not in any event exceed the price named in this contract for a like quantity of current.

Said party of the second part further agrees that all carbons used shall be of the best quality, burning uniformly and give a clear and steady light, and that the globes shall be of clear glass unless otherwise ordered by the mayor and standing committee on lighting streets of the city council of said City of Laconia.

Said party of the second part further agrees that the lamps, globes, and reflectors shall be thoroughly cleaned each time that new carbon is supplied, and shall be kept in a state of highest efficiency to supply the maximum amount of light from the specified amount of electrical energy.

Said party of the second part further agrees that if said party of the first part shall at any time during the term of this contract see fit to appoint in its behalf an electrical inspector and define his duties, that said party of the second part will afford said inspector the fullest opportunity at all times to make such examinations and electrical tests as he shall deem reasonable and necessary in order to ascertain if the terms and provisions of this contract are being performed by said party of the second part, and shall give said inspector all reasonable facilities for the ready performance of his duties and furnish such assistance as he may require in making electrical tests or measurements without cost to the party of the first part.

And said party of the second part further agrees to afford to the mayor of said city and its standing committee on street lighting and any duly authorized agent of said city, the fullest opportunity at all times to make such examinations of the electrical and power plant of said party of the second part, and other works and constructions of the party of the second part relating to this contract as shall be reasonable and necessary.

Said party of the second part further agrees that within the compact part of Laconia proper and also the compact part of Lakeport all poles set for the purpose of stringing wires or maintaining lamps in position shall be of good quality Georgia pine, old growth white pine, white oak or chestnut; that all poles will be sawed square or octagonal, will be straight, have their tops apexed, and be not less than eight (8) inches square at the base for square poles, and not less than nine (9) inches between parallel sides of octagonal poles. Outside the compact part of Laconia proper and the compact part of Lakeport, straight round poles of the same kind of wood and of sufficient size will be set. All poles will be located subject to the approval of the board of public works of said City of Laconia, and will be kept painted, and said party of the first part may use the topmost cross arms of each pole for fire alarm or other municipal wires free of cost.

Said party of the second part further agrees for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, that it will at its own expense, furnish and supply the power and current for and maintain in the public streets, squares, alleys, lanes, and other public places in said City of Laconia, at such points as the mayor and standing committee on lighting streets, of the city council of said City of Laconia, shall designate, not less than thirty (30) incandescent, twenty-five (25) candle power electric lamps, and care for the same during the term of this contract, and will at all times furnish said incandescent lamps with sufficient current and keep them supplied with new lamps so that they shall at all times be in proper condition for furnishing their full capacity of candle power.

And said party of the second part further agrees to light and keep lighted said incandescent electric lamps for the same hours, and extra hours if extra hours are necessary by reason of exceptional darkness of the day due to storm or otherwise, as hereinbefore provided for the arc electric lights.

And said party of the second part further agrees that it will furnish incandescent electric lighting by not less than sixteen (16) candle power incandescent lamps for all the city offices of said City of Laconia in Masonic Temple, in said City of Laconia, or in such other place or places in said city as said offices may be located during the term of this contract; in the fire department houses in Laconia, in said city, twelve (12) of such lamps, in the town clock in the Freewill Baptist church at Lakeport; in the City stable in Laconia, in the city police stations in Laconia, without making any charge for power, current and lights, to said party of the first part during the term of this contract, and will also furnish during the term of this contract sufficient electric current for operation of a generator to charge the storage batteries operating the fire alarm system, free of charge.

Said party of the second part further agrees that it will comply with all existing or further reasonable rules, regulations or ordinances, of the city council of said City or Laconia during the term of this contract, relating to methods of wiring, the use of streets, squares, alleys, lanes and other public places in said city, the placing of poles and the trimming of trees or cutting of the same.

And it is particularly understood and agreed on the part of the party of the second part that the sum hereinafter specified to be paid to it by the party of the first part, for lighting by electricity under this contract, is to cover and include all charges and expenses of every name and nature whatsoever incident to the performance of this contract between the parties hereto and the maintenance of a first-class lighting system for said City of Laconia, to the satisfaction of the city council of said City of Laconia.

It is further understood and agreed on the part of said party of the second part with said party of the first part, that any and all damage or injury to any electric lamp or construction belonging to said party of the second part in said City of Laconia, arising from fire or other unavoidable casualty during the term of this contract shall be repaired or renewed by said party of the second part with reasonable diligence, and this contract shall not thereby be vitiated; that any and all loss, cost or damage to any person or property which may arise or be caused by any pole, wire, lamp, or other apparatus or construction in charge or possession of or belonging to said party of the second part, or any accident, casualty or loss, cost, damage or expense happening or accruing to any person or property occasioned by the negligence or want of care on the part of the party of the second part, its officers, agents, servants, and employes, shall be borne by the party of the second part.

And said party of the second part agrees that it will furnish to said party of the first part a bond with sufficient and satisfactory sureties in the penal sum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars, conditioned to hold and save harmless the said party of the first part from all loss, cost, damage and expense that may accrue to it by reason of injury, loss, cost, damage or expense to any person or property occasioned by any pole, wire, lamp or other apparatus or construction of the party of the second part, or occasioned by any negligence or want of care on the part of said party of the second part, its officers, agents, servants or employees.

Said party of the first part agrees to pay said party of the second part for each and every one of the arc electric lights that it shall furnish under this contract to said party of the first part, the sum of seventy-two dollars and fifty cents ($72.50) per annum, and for each incandescent electric light it shall furnish to said party of the first part (except those to be furnished free of charge as hereinbefore set forth), the sum of seventeen ($17.00) dollars per annum, the same to be paid in monthly payments; but in case that a less current is found on any circuit, after said circuit has been started an hour, then a proportionate deduction will be made by said party of the first part from the amount to be paid for the lights upon said circuit for the period of such deficiency. In case any lamp shall be found to work irregularly after the circuit has been started an hour, and to give an interrupted light, then such light shall be considered out and deduction will be made by the party of the second part for the time of such interruption, and for all lamps out for more than an hour at a time, from any cause, a proportionate deduction in the price to be paid by the party of the first part for said light at the end of the month will be made.

The said party of the first part agrees that the said party of the second part may maintain its present lines through and over the public streets, alleys, and lanes of said City of Laconia, and erect such new lines as may be necessary, proper cause for such new lines being shown.

With First Christian Church Regarding City Clock and Bell.

This agreement made this fifteenth day of February, A. D., 1906, between the City of Laconia, a municipal corporation duly established and existing in the County of Belknap and State of New Hampshire, hereinafter called the party of the first part, and the First Christian Church of Laconia, a corporation duly established and organized under the laws of the State of New Hampshire, and located and having its office in the City of Laconia, in the County of Belknap and State of New Hampshire, hereinafter called the party of the second part, witnesseth:

That in consideration of the mutual promises herein contained, the said parties of the first and second part agree as follows.

That whereas the said party of the first part is the owner of a tower clock with all its fixtures and appliances, which said tower clock is known as the town or city clock, and with its said fixtures and appliances is now and for many years has been located and set up in the tower of the church in said Laconia, now owned by said party of the second part, said church being now known as the First Christian church, and being the same building purchased by said party of the second part from the Laconia Congregational society and removed from its former location on the corner of Main and Church streets to its present location on Depot square, so called, nearly opposite the railway passenger station, in said Laconia, and being the same church formerly known as and now often called the "North" church.

And whereas, the said party of the first part is the owner of the church bell located and set up in the tower of said church, upon which bell the clock before mentioned strikes the hours:

Now, therefore, said party of the second part for itself, its successors and assigns, agrees with said party of the first part that said party of the first part may keep and maintain said clock with all its fixtures and appliances, and said bell with all its fixtures and appliances, in said church tower, as long as said party of the first part shall desire to do so, free of any charge to said party of the first part, it being distinctly understood on the part of the said party of the second part that said party of the first part is to pay no fee, rent or charge of any kind whatsoever by reason of keeping and maintaining said clock and bell with their fixtures and appliances in said church tower, it being understood that any repairs necessary, in the judgment of said party of the first part, to be made to said clock or bell or said clock and bell, or to the structure immediately connected with said clock or bell which in the judgment of the party of the first part requires repairs by reason of said clock and bell being in said tower shall be by the party of the first part or under its direction or supervision if it shall so desire, and the expense thereof borne by said party of the first part.

And said party of the second part agrees that said party of the first part by its officers, agents, servants, and employees, may enter said church structure and the tower thereof at any time which in the judgment of the party of the first part shall be necessary for the purpose of winding said clock, and keeping, repairing and maintaining said clock and bell in such condition and repair as to the party of the first part shall be deemed necessary.

And said party of the first part agrees with said party of the second part that said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, may use the bell aforesaid for all necessary and proper ringing for church and social purposes free of charge so long as said party of the first part shall keep and maintain said bell in said church structure. Any repairs of said bell or its fixtures or appliances or of the structure occasioned or necessary to be made for the purpose of ringing it by the party of the second part or its successors or assigns shall be made and the expense thereof borne by the party of the second part, its successors or assigns.

Any repairs to said bell, occasioned by the use as aforesaid, by the party of the second part as aforesaid, shall be under the supervision of the party of the first part if said party of the first part shall desire.

It is understood and agreed between the said parties of the first and second part that said party of the first part shall be under no obligation whatsoever to keep and maintain said clock and bell, either or both in said church structure, but may remove either or both at any time it may see fit, and said party of the first part shall be under no liability for the payment of any damages, charges or expenses of any kind to said church structure by reason of keeping and maintaining said clock and bell therein, unless the damage or expense is occasioned by the party of the first part, but it is distinctly understood that the ordinary wear and tear of the structure, or any damage or expense occasioned by jar to the building by the running or winding of the clock, or the striking on the bell of the hours or the ringing of the bell shall not be considered repairs or damage occasioned by the party of the first part the expense of which is to be borne by it.

It is also understood and agreed by the parties that the party of the first part shall be under no obligation to keep said clock and bell, either or both or any of their fixtures or appliances insured unless it shall see fit, neither shall said party of the second part be under any obligation to keep either said clock or bell or their fixtures or appliances insured.

In case of the destruction of said church structure by fire or other unavoidable casualty said party of the first part shall be under no obligation of any kind whatsoever to the party of the second part by reason thereof, neither shall the party of the second part be under any obligation of any kind whatsoever to the party of the first part by reason thereof.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first herein written.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Citizens of Laconia:

In view of the fact that this report contains reports of the superintendent of schools, principal of the High school, special teachers, and a statistical summary, we do not deem any extended report from your board necessary, but we earnestly recommend that you read all of these reports carefully, that you may know to some extent, what is being done in our schools, that should be the pride of every citizen.

The past school year, we believe, has been successful, and profitable to our pupils, and satisfactory to teachers and parents.

It has certainly been a very harmonious, pleasant year, so far as your board is concerned, for we do not recall a single complaint that has been made to us during the year, either by pupil, parent or teacher; this we regard as remarkable, considering the number of pupils we have in our public schools, and it speaks highly of our superintendent and teachers, for it is usually true that there is no difficulty or dissatisfaction of any consequence but what finds its way to the board of education.

No school has been closed during the year by an epidemic of contagious sickness, although more or less of the pupils have been absent on account of such sickness, and there has been from fear of contagion, uneasiness at times that has worried parents and distracted pupils, and we desire here to emphasize the duty of every family having pupils in the public schools, to coöperate with the board of health, superintendent and teachers in preventing contagious diseases in our schools. If your child is not well and you are not sure what the matter is, call your physician and find out, before you send that child to school and perhaps expose hundreds of pupils to contagion. And if some member of your family has a contagious disease, on no account let a pupil attend school from your family, after being exposed to the contagion, until all danger is surely past.

We have had some cases in the city that either indicate almost criminal carelessness or else utter disregard of the rights and welfare of others. There should be a moral awakening on this subject among our people; it is impossible for the health officers and school authorities to cope successfully with this evil unless they have the coöperation of the parents, for it is impossible to know what is taking place in all of our families from which pupils attend school, therefore, we make an earnest appeal to all to assist in doing everything possible to prevent contagious diseases in our schools.

We do not call attention to this matter to intensify the anxiety of parents, but to the end that greater precaution may be taken, and that public confidence may be so great along this line, that parents at all times may feel perfectly safe in sending their children to the public schools, whenever they are in session, which would eradicate the worst evil we have to contend with, namely, that when any scholars are absent from school on account of contagious disease the parents are likely to become panic-stricken and keep their children out of school, so that the school becomes absolutely demoralized.

The burning of the Mechanic street school building in the fall, just as the new school year was beginning so propitiously, was a great misfortune, but no interruption in the school work was permitted on account of it. The fire occurred Friday afternoon, and through the energy of the superintendent and teachers the schools were in session as usual on the next Monday morning.

By prompt action on the part of the city council and your board, a new four-room brick school building with up-to-date heating, ventilation and plumbing, stands where the old one was burned, and will in a short time be ready for occupancy. We shall then have in our city six brick school buildings, three of them new, with modern heating, plumbing and ventilation, and all in first-class condition with the exception of Bowman street building where some repairs may have to be made before very long. The Gilford avenue building is now the only wooden school building in the compact part of the city, and that is modern and in good condition.

When some of the present members of the board were first elected, the city only had three brick buildings and two of them were badly out of repair, and did not have plumbing nor proper heating facilities, and Lakeport had only one school building worthy of the name, and that was the wooden one that was burned. So, we think that Laconia has a right to feel proud of the progress it has made in this respect. And we do not believe that any worthy citizen begrudges the money that it has cost to build and equip these new school buildings.

For several years we have been calling attention to the need of new plumbing in the High school building, but during the past year the city council made a special appropriation for this purpose, and there is now in that building a first-class system of plumbing, making the building sanitary, and relieving us of the anxiety that we have had in relation to this matter for years.

We believe that our schools are a credit to our city, and that they are doing good work, but we ask your hearty coöperation in upbuilding and improving them. We should be satisfied with only the best, for they constitute the greatest element there is in the development and progress of our city.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

To the Board of Education:

I herewith present my ninth annual report.

It covers as usual parts of two school years, having in its make up the statistical summary of the school year, closing in June, 1905, together with the fall term of fifteen weeks of the present school year.

The administration on your part has been conservative and consistent, due largely to the permanence of your numbers and the skill and knowledge of school matters which come from your familiarity with the work. A superintendent is fortunate who knows the wishes of his board from acquaintance of a personal nature of years standing, and it is at this time that I wish to express the feeling that it is in a large measure due to you that the past year has been so satisfactory and successful. There have been but few changes among the teachers during the time, practically no one failing of reëlection and only three cases of resignation and one change on account of sickness.

Absent on account of sickness: Lillian M. Eveleth.

Miss Alice P. Sargent gave way to Miss Weymouth, whose year of absence had expired. Only one transfer has been made, in the case of Miss Cora I. Sargent, who took the position vacated by Miss Hart.

The new teachers are Miss Shattuck for the Washington street primary, and Miss Bailey and Mr. Barrett, both for the High school, the former in place of Miss Moulton and the latter added to the force on account of increased numbers in the school demanding it. Miss Doyle was secured during the fall term to take Miss Eveleth's place, who found her health so shattered that she was unable to continue the work. Miss Lang was sick for some weeks during the winter of 1905 and is at present incapacitated. Miss Busiel was called in to substitute during her first sickness and Mrs. Filmore now has charge of her school.

As I have before hinted, the unusual increase in the size of the High school necessitated another teacher and required the school room used for the seventh grade in the High school building, therefore, that grade was moved to the vacant room in the Batchelder street building, and the room thus vacated was fitted up with new desks for High school use.

The principal event of the year was the burning of the Mechanic street school house during the first week of the fall term, Sept. 15, 1905. As this happened on a Friday, it was possible to start the schools on the following Monday again, largely through the proffered use of the Free Baptist church of Lakeport, a kindness which the people of this city, as well as your board and myself, cannot fail to appreciate. The church vestries were used for about a month till suitable rooms could be found and fitted up in the Piper and Cushing blocks, where the schools are now in session. A committee from your board with a similar one from the city council immediately devised means for rebuilding, using the same plans with slight modifications that had proven so satisfactory at Batchelder and Washington streets. The contract for the building was awarded to Guay & Wallace, whose well-known energy has again been shown by bringing the new building to such a degree of completion at this date that it can doubtless be occupied at the beginning of the spring term.

The summer vacation was marked by extensive improvements at the High school building, by the installation of a modern system of sanitation by W. D. Huse & Sons. This has been a long felt want and the betterment was made possible by an especial appropriation of the city council of $1000 for the purpose. The walls and ceilings were tinted and the wood work received a coat of varnish, much to the improvement of the whole interior of the building.

Our course of study for the grades has been reprinted after a complete revision, which has been gradually assuming shape for some time. This modest attempt of your superintendent, while not elaborate, seems to suit our needs, and only requires faithful adoption and close following on the part of the teachers to lead to a greater uniformity of the work of the grades. It is our purpose, with this guide in the hands of every teacher, to systematize more thoroughly the work of all the grades and to eliminate that "go as you please" method which teachers of long experience are prone to adopt or rather grow into from lack of sufficient guide or careful direction. Language has been particularly elaborated in the course to make something as tangible as possible for the convenience of the teachers in a subject that is so far reaching and general in its scope. All the subjects taught in a grade, including music and drawing, have been brought together under their own grade heading instead of being scattered through the course under different subjects.

The number of pupils in our schools remains fully as large as last year, though the seventh and eighth grades are noticeably smaller. The large increase of numbers in the High school has rather more than made good losses elsewhere, and fully measured up to our expectations as voiced in last year's report. Nearly eighty pupils graduated from the grammar schools last June and fully seventy of them are at present registered in the freshman class of the High school. This is a showing that speaks in no uncertain tones of the unity and popularity of our school system.

I would call your attention to the usual statistical tables and the special reports of the principal of the High school and others.* I wish also to commend the labors of all our teachers and to express my hearty appreciation of their efforts.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. BLAISDELL,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF HIGH SCHOOL.

---

Mr. J. H. Blaisdell, Superintendent of Schools:

Sir:—I submit the following, my fourth annual report, as principal of the Laconia High school.

The new course of study adopted by the board of education has been in use for a year and a half and is giving good satisfaction. By this course, as you know, graduation is made to depend not on the satisfactory completion of four years of study, but on the satisfactory completion of a certain amount of work; an amount that will usually be done in four years, but may be done in five or six or even in three.

As this report will be read by the citizens who support our school I wish to take the opportunity to describe the course in detail. We may divide our High school studies broadly into four classes, mathematics, science, history and language; and certain studies under each of these divisions are required of all students. Beyond this the course is elective, that is the studies for the year must be selected with the advice and consent of the principal and must then be submitted to the parents for their approval. By this means the course is rendered elastic and can be fitted to the capacities and needs of the individual pupil.

The satisfactory completion of any study gives the student a point credit equal to the number of recitations in that study per week. Sixty-four credit points are required for graduation and about sixteen constitute an ordinary year's work, but the health, the mental ability, the maturity and the ambitions of the pupil determine the amount of work for the year. For the present year the maximum and minimum study credits attempted are twenty-six points and seven points respectively. From this it will be seen that the ordinary belief that all High school students take the same studies and in the same amounts is devoid of truth, as it has been our continual attempt to fit the studies to the students and their needs.

Especially I wish to call this to the attention of parents whose children are of delicate health, learn slowly or wish to pursue outside studies as music. For such, graduation at the end of four years implies a severe strain, particularly if college preparation is desired.

As is well known our school is on the approved list of the New England College Entrance Certificate Board, but this does not mean that all graduates are ready for college admission. It means that the principal is permitted to grant certificates admitting to college without examinations, such pupils as have taken the required studies and in his opinion are fitted to do college work. These certificates may be total or partial. If partial they cover certain studies and the college examines the applicant in the others. These certificates are desirable but must be deserved before they are given. In any case to give a pupil a thorough preparation for college is a serious task and parents should mature their plans for their children at the beginning of the High school course.

We are receiving a constantly increasing number of requests from the business men of the city for boys and girls whom we can recommend. This demand is always greater than the supply and as an expression of confidence in the High school as the people's college is very gratifying.

Our growth in numbers for several years has been a pleasant subject for consideration. The increase in the last four years has been 61%; the gain in boys is 84% and girls 48%. This has not been because of large entering classes; for the number in the entering class averaged 70 in the years 1895-1899; while in the years since the average has been 55. The great majority of our pupils enter now with the expectation of graduating and I think I am correct in the assertion that the loss between the ninth grade and the High school and between classes in the High school is no greater than between some of the lower grades.

The school growth forced the fitting of another seating room and the employment of another teacher. That both were necessary is shown by the fact that our enrollment for the fall term was 186 and our total number of seats is 191, and that while the average number of pupils per teacher in the New Hampshire High schools is 24, with us it is 31.

The class preparing for graduation next June numbers 35 and will be much the largest class to be graduated from our school. It should not, however, be an excessive number for us in the future.

During the summer several much needed changes and repairs were made in the school building and the school by winning a prize in a voting contest conducted by a Boston paper obtained for the school about $100 worth of statuary. The summer also brought the resignation of Miss Moulton, who during her ten years' connection with the school had won the love of hundreds of pupils and the esteem of all who knew her faithful, efficient work.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. BUTTERFIELD,

Mr. J. H. Blaisdell, Superintendent of Schools:

In submitting my report for the year just ending, I have only to say that my work has been a continuation of the course already laid out. It has been followed as closely as possible. Almost without exception the grades are farther advanced than at the same time one year ago, which is encouraging.

We are well supplied with books and most of them are in good condition. Owing to the increased attendance in the High school this year the music used before would not go round and a new chorus book, called "The Laurel Song Book," was purchased and it seems to be all that was claimed for it. None of my appointments have been cancelled unless I could see a chance to make up the time. The interest is greater and the general work more uniform than at any time since my connection with the schools. The teachers are a hard-working, pains-taking body who do all in their power to advance the work in music. The best way, however, to gain a knowledge of what is being done is to visit and see for yourself.

My program follows, and you are cordially invited to visit at any time. My thanks are hereby extended to all connected with the schools for their courteous treatment during the year, and I hope to merit a continuance of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

FRED H. OSGOOD,

Supervisor of Music.

REPORT OF DRAWING TEACHER.

---

Mr. J. H. Blaisdell, Superintendent of Schools:

A few minor changes have been made in our course of drawing this year. These do not vary the work much from last year, but the few changes each year work a great change in four or five years.

One year ago last September, drawing, in the High school, was made an elective study. As a result each pupil taking drawing can work two periods a week.

This year, nearly one-half of the whole number of pupils in the school are in the drawing classes. We had some difficulty in accommodating forty freshmen at one time. A few of the pupils on account of their positions are working under great disadvantages. It is the best that can be done with the present furniture of the room. Each pupil should have a drawing table, then he could sit facing the group he is drawing.

Our seniors have made drawings that were never equalled in our schools:

Some of the pupils having the greatest ability in drawing leave, even before reaching the High school, to work. If they could have their High school education, and then make drawing a specialty, it would be an advantage to them financially and in many cases, if not all, their life work would be more enjoyable to them and profitable to the community.

"The public schools do not exist to make specialists in any branch of labor. But they should exist to reveal to the child the powers of his being, opening the doors of earth's treasure house, showing him the ways, that at least he may choose which path he will."

I wish to thank the teachers for their most earnest coöperation, and the superintendent for counsel and aid.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCY N. NELSON.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN.

To the Honorable Board of Trustees of the Public Library.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to submit to you my third annual report as librarian of the Laconia Public Library for the year ending December, 31, 1905.

Three hundred and sixty new books were added by purchase and 141 volumes by gift. Three books came as a premium with Collier's weekly and thirty-nine volumes of periodicals were bound. Through the courtesy of their son and daughters, 196 books, 2 pamphlets and 262 numbers of the Granite Monthly were received from the estates of the late Judge Hibbard and his widow. The books could not be accessioned at the time and therefore they are not included in the number of books added by gift. They include a sheep-bound set of the congress of which Judge Hibbard was a member, and other publications of of the government. They will be accessioned together when the other books in their class are catalogued. The Granite Monthlies were especially valuable as they enabled us to complete our set. This is the more useful because we have a good index to the first thirty-four volumes. We also have a complete set of the Century magazine.

The use made of these two sets indicates that much valuable reference material would be made available if the more important periodicals could be bound as the volumes are completed. Other libraries pay large amounts for partial or complete sets of periodicals for their reference departments. To such an extent is this done that a considerable number of firms and individuals make it their principal business to collect periodicals and make them up into sets to sell to libraries. We have many volumes of magazines that would be very useful if they could be bound. The single numbers are used, but it takes longer to find what is wanted, there is more risk of loss or injury than if they were bound and the title-page and index are liable to be lost so they cannot be bound later.

Thirty-three volumes of the early patent office reports were received from Mr. Leonard L. Davis. These have not been accessioned or included in the statistical summary because they could not be collated for duplicates at the time they were received. They will help us to complete our set and will be included in the total when the entire library has been accessioned. Fifty-seven books were received from the estate of Mrs. J. W. Busiel through the courtesy of the president of the board. As these books belonged to classes in circulation, they were accessioned and are included in the additions by gift. Mrs. Gertrude S. Blakely gave the library 31 books and 493 periodicals. The books were accessioned and many of them will be useful in Bible study. It is hoped that the periodicals may be made into volumes and bound at some future time. Mrs. Frank P. Holt gave us a dozen volumes of a more popular character. Some of them were duplicates of books that are already badly worn.

Nineteen books that had been worn out were discarded during the year. The number of books in the library on the first of January is given in the summary as 11,513. This does not include the books received from the Hibbard estates or from Mr. Davis, and is based on a very careful count made about two years ago. When all the books have been accessioned a more accurate statement can be made.

Three hundred and twenty-two pamphlets were given and eight were bought during the year. The number in the library on the first day of January was 2,724. These have been classified by Miss Busiel during the past year. There are a large number of pamphlets on farming and fruit growing. The number of pamphlets does not include periodicals received by gift or subscription. The number of these is so large and is increasing so rapidly, it does not seem advisable to keep an account of them.

Of the 360 new books bought 151, or nearly one-half, were not received until the last of October and few of these were in circulation before November. Considering that fact, it is encouraging to find that the circulation shows a gain of nearly 10 % from 29,429 in 1904 to 32,197 in 1905. Every book loaned during the year was returned. It is a remarkable fact that, out of 73,586 books loaned since the new building was occupied, every book but one has been returned or paid for by the borrower. This is the more gratifying because no one claiming a temporary or permanent residence in the city has been required to furnish a guaranty or make a deposit. In almost every instance, a card has been issued and a book loaned immediately. Moreover, the youngest child who can write can come to the library alone, register and obtain a book to take home. Two hundred and fifty-two children under twelve years of age, have registered and drawn books. No one of these has been known to abuse the confidence thus reposed.

An average of 105.56 books were loaned on every one of the 305 days on which books could be exchanged. Eighteen hundred and fifty-five books were sent to Lakeport, a gain of 40 volumes. One thousand and fifty-six books were sent to The Weirs, a gain of 472 volumes, or 80 %. This remarkable gain is due to the messenger, Walter Avery. He has been very faithful and obliging and has done much more than was required of him to interest the people of that section in the library and to encourage them to draw books. He has worked zealously and intelligently to increase the circulation.

Four hundred and sixty-two persons registered during the year, bringing the total registration up to 2,039. The largest registration has been from Ward four every year. Forty-seven non-fiction cards were issued. Only 141 of these cards have been called for since the registration began. They are issued to all who apply for them. Works of fiction and seven day books can not be drawn on them, but all other books available for circulation may. They are provided to enable patrons to have a popular book for entertainment and a more serious book for study or information at the same time. The two books need not be drawn or returned at the same time. It is strange that so few avail themselves of this privilege.

Eighteen hundred and eighty-four books were retained longer than the rules permitted and 1830 fines, amounting to $84.30, were paid. The increase in the amount was $21.48 or more than 34%.

It has not seemed advisable to keep a record of all who use the reading room or the study room. To make an accurate count, an extra attendant would be required during busy hours. As a basis for an estimate, an attempt was made to count those who used either room during the week beginning Wednesday, December 6, and ending Tuesday, December 12. The number, 547, was probably larger than it would be in the summer season and less than the average from November to March inclusive. The attendance was noticeably smaller than it was the previous week. There are many visitors in the summer, but the object was to ascertain the number of persons who come to the rooms to read. Recent issues of periodicals as well as the current numbers are kept on file in the reading room, so they may be read without application at the loan desk. About fifty volumes of reference books were accessible in the study room. No record of such use can be kept. In addition to this, 382 books, pamphlets, and periodicals were called for at the desk to be used in the building. The library has been open every day, except Sundays and holidays, from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. for the exchange of books as well as for reading and study. During October, November, and December the library was open from 2 to 6 p. m. every Sunday. The attendance was 449, an average of  $34\frac{1}{2}$  each Sunday. While the attendance is not as large as was hoped for, some seem to appreciate the opportunity to use the library who could not come on other days. The library is to be kept open on Sunday until the first of May as an experiment. Whether the practice will be continued longer will depend upon the attendance. Any book or periodical may be used in the building, but no books are received or loaned on Sunday.

Greatly increased usefulness for the library in the near future is assured. Twenty-two periodicals have been ordered or promised that were not on file a year ago. A list of these is given below. A continuous display of pictures, photographs, and other works of art has been provided. A new exhibit will be shown every three weeks. Eight hundred and forty-four persons saw the views of New England scenery in Memorial hall last February. Shelving for reference books will soon be placed in the study room. The books have been ordered to the value of about $700. Books on the useful arts, costing about $190, will soon be ready for circulation. These will include books on almost every trade, business or profession in the city and also on domestic science and household economy. They were purchased from the income of the Helen A. Avery fund. It is hoped that other generous benefactors will provide endowments for the purchase of books in other classes. In addition to the above, hundreds of new and popular books have recently been ordered. Twenty volumes of songs and instrumental music have been received and additional volumes of the Musicians library will be added as published. These books will be loaned so that our musicians may enjoy the masterpieces of musical composition.

With a good reference library in the study room to which additions must be made as important new books appear, the next step should be to provide a reading room in the basement for the children. Most of them are as quiet and well-behaved in the reading room as could be expected, but older readers are disturbed, and the use of the room is somewhat restricted by their presence in large numbers. They should have a room where there would be less restraint and more to interest and instruct them. An attendant should be provided for at least certain hours of each day and more especially for Saturday, to read to them and to help them to use the library intelligently. The library should be made the most attractive place in the city for the children. If this is done, they will grow up to be the most loyal and devoted friends of the library.

A few classics in the French language, recently purchased, have been in constant demand. A reasonable number of the best French books should be provided for those of our citizens who cannot read English and for the students of that language at the High school.

There has been little change in the staff during the year. The cataloguer accepted a life position in the summer that prevents her doing regular work at the library. She is still interested in its usefulness and her literary taste and professional experience enable her to give valuable assistance in the selection of books to be purchased. Miss Wilkinson accessioned the remainder of biography, all of history and the larger part of literature during her summer vacation. Miss Phillips has been made an assistant at the loan desk on a regular salary instead of being paid by the hour for such time as she might be needed. Miss Ruby May Evans and Miss Marjorie M. Osgood have learned the routine work at the loan desk so they can act as substitutes or assist when required. Both show commendable zeal and aptitude and either would make a useful assistant in a library. No new cataloguer has been employed as it is believed that the work is so far completed that this will not be necessary.

The librarian has been very much gratified by the indications of the confidence of your Honorable Board and by your prompt acceptance of his suggestions. He is also pleased to express his appreciation of the cordial and zealous support of his staff and hopes the coming year may witness a decided advance in the popularity and usefulness of the library.

A record of gifts of books, pamphlets and periodicals follows, and to each of the persons, firms and institutions named the gratitude of this library is hereby expressed.

REPORT OF BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

To the Honorable Mayor and Council:

We present herewith the fifth annual report of this board with the inventories and an account of the receipts and expenditures in detail.

The street commissioner's report will show you what has been undertaken and accomplished during the year and the cost attending the various items. The season was so far advanced when we were ready to commence the paving of Water and Elm streets, that it was thought best to defer the work until spring. As soon as the weather conditions will permit this will be completed. An additional appropriation, sufficient to pave Water street to the railroad crossing at this time, would save the city quite a large sum and complete the improvements on this street so far as contemplated at this time, and it is hoped the council will give this their favorable consideration. In the burnt district of Ward six, the work commenced in regulating the streets and sidewalks should be continued as in all probability rebuilding of residences in this district will be more active in the near future, and the changing of grades cannot be accomplished without involving the city in damage suits. The maintenance of our concrete walks cannot be properly done with the present appropriation and many of them are in bad condition. The city should purchase a steam roller. We now have a good stone crushing plant and plenty of fair material for making macadam roads and with a steam roller the board could build a piece of road each year from the regular appropriation. We are away behind all of our neighbors in this matter which is not to our credit as a progressive city.

The various departments with their tools and supplies are in good condition and the usual appropriations will be sufficient to maintain them, except as mentioned.

JULIUS E. WILSON,

JACOB SANBORN,

REPORT OF STREET COMMISSIONER.

To the Board of Public Works:

The report of the street department for the year ending February 15, 1906, is submitted herewith.

The balance of the ledge on Main street, north of Busiel street, has been removed and some grading done on the street about 400 feet south of that point.

The wall on the east side of Main street, north of Oak street, has been extended and is now more than half completed.

Lyford street from Messer to Belknap and Belknap street from Lyford to Oak have been graded and a crushed stone sidewalk constructed on one side of the street for most of the distance. There is a short piece of sidewalk and the railing to protect the embankments needed to complete this work.

The Cottage street culvert has been built with the opening a little larger than that at Joliet street. The appropriation was just sufficient to complete this work.

In the burnt district at Lakeport, the grading of School street between Belvidere and North streets has been completed, the catch basins built and curb corners set. The department has also set about 200 feet of curb on this street for the property owners. Belvidere street from Gold to Fairmont street has been graded, one catch basin built and about forty-five feet in length of new retaining wall constructed.

On Elm street, between Park street and the river, the surface sewer has been put in, the catch basins built, and the curb set, so that the contractor can start on the pavement the first thing in the spring. With the exception of the purchase of some of the materials nothing has been done on the Water street paving.

The amount actually expended for the work of this department, during the year, is $13,848.18, which may be itemized as follows:

Winter expenses . . . . .	$ 2,260.45
General repairs . . . . .	5,685.11
Scavenger service . . . . .	1,184.65
Cleaning streets . . . . .	632.96
Cleaning catch basins . . . . .	139.58
Labor and supplies at stone crusher . . . . .	219.26
Lakeport fire district . . . . .	1,326.55
Lyford and Belknap streets . . . . .	814.23
Pleasant street at new church . . . . .	254.70
Ledge North Main street . . . . .	266.56
Wall North Main street . . . . .	299.56
Care of soldiers' monument lot . . . . .	48.46
Paid on horse account . . . . .	258.88
Curbing and brick bought and not used . . . . .	457.23
	$13,848.18

It will be noticed that the item for scavenger service is much larger than it was last year, and I wish to say in explanation, that, during the year, the department has collected 492 loads of ashes and 685 loads of garbage.

It is hardly necessary to offer any explanation of the unexpended balance in this department, as everyone must know that there has been almost nothing for the department to do for the last three months. This is of course very fortunate but it would hardly be safe to base any estimate of expenses on any such conditions as have prevailed during the present winter.

All the bills contracted during the year have been presented for your approval. There are bills due the department to the amount of $37.40 that I have been unable to collect.

Respectfully submitted,

F. G. BERRY,
Street Commissioner.

To the Board of Public Works:

The thirteenth annual report of this department, for the year ending Feb. 15, 1906, is herewith submitted.

I am again obliged to report that the appropriation provided for the work of this department has proved insufficient to meet the expenses, notwithstanding the fact that, aside from work ordered by the board or council, nothing has been done by this department that it seemed possible to put off. For this reason nothing has been done in the burnt district this season except to give lines and grades for the construction work. I regret very much that the re-location of the street lines in this section could not be finished, as every year that passes will add to the difficulty of the work and is liable to increase the expense very materially.

It is a fact that the demands on this department are increasing every year and this statement applies not only to the requirements of the city's officials but also to those of the general public and it places the city engineer in a very unpleasant position not to be able to comply with the legitimate demands of the public upon the services of the department and in some cases it seems almost an act of injustice not to do so. In conclusion, I can only add that I hope that in the near future this department will be so situated that it will be able to comply with all reasonable requests for its services.

Respectfully submitted,

F. G. BERRY,

City Engineer.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SEWERS.

To the Board of Public Works:

The fifteenth annual report of this department, for the year ending Feb. 15, 1906, is herewith submitted.

The sewer on Court street near West street, froze again early in March and caused a stoppage in this line until it could be thawed out. Aside from this there is nothing to report except that the sewers are all in good condition and that the routine work of the department is being regularly carried on.

The broken pipe in the Webster street sewer was replaced with cast iron pipe the first thing last spring and I think that it will stand the pressure of the fill all right in the future. No construction work has been done during the year.

CITY SOLICITOR'S REPORT.

To the City Council:

I have the honor to submit my report as city solicitor. During the year that has passed like those which preceded it, many legal questions involving matters of importance to the city have been presented me for consideration, all of which have been given my attention.

In the matter of litigation, the only cases now in court in which the city is concerned as a party are those of Stephen K. Lyford involving a claim for damages for the North church lot, so-called, Thomas F. Carroll for alleged damages to his land on Davis Place, and the Lake Company tax cases.

The litigation relating to the petitions by the Lake Company for abatement of taxes has been in court a long time. Hearings have been had before the court during the past year and an important order has recently been made by the court relating to the admission of certain evidence.

As suggested in my report last year, a great many important matters have received consideration by the law department of the city, which do not require particular mention in this report.

To His Honor, the Mayor, the members of the City Council and other officers of the city government, I extend thanks for courtesies received during the year.

STEPHEN S. JEWETT,

City Solicitor.

I feel I would be lax in my duty did I fail to call attention to the building on Water street used as a lockup. I have no hesitancy in saying, that for sanitary reasons, if for no other, in my judgment this building should be condemned. Owing to its location in the rear of the central fire station, the offal from the station stables is thrown at its door. The neighborhood is also used as a dumping ground for all the refuse and offal scraped from the paved and concrete streets in the city, resulting in a stench that is perfectly unbearable.

The other conditions making this an unfit and undesirable place for the purpose for which it is used, are too familiar for me to dwell upon, but I may add that all the officers of this department dread to think of the possibilities in case of fire.

My thanks are due former City Marshal H. K. W. Scott, for the courtesy extended me upon my assuming the duties of this office.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN M. GUAY,

City Marshal.

REPORT OF CLERK OF POLICE COURT.

To the City Council:

I have the honor to submit my report as clerk of the police court.

The number of criminal cases brought before this court, and the disposal of the same, the city marshal gives a detailed account.

Cash received for entry of civil cases, eighteen dollars, for which I hold receipt of city treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

MARTIN B. PLUMMER,

OVERSEERS OF POOR.

To the City Council:

We beg leave to state that all calls for relief have been promptly attended to. There are at present four families who are being helped more or less by city regularly; also one charge at Belknap county farm and one at N. H. State hospital. We have used our best judgment in managing this department and would suggest that the sum of one thousand dollars be appropriated next year.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR TUCKER,

A. EUGENE HILL,

Overseers of Poor.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

To the City Council:

We herewith submit our report of sanitary work for the year ending December thirty-first, 1905.

Complaints made to and investigated by the board of health, 67; houses closed containing contagious diseases, 21; animals buried, 6; nuisances abated, 21.

The following cases of contagious diseases were reported: Scarlet fever, 19, in fourteen houses; measles, 7, in three houses; typhoid fever, 3.

The expenses of the board of health are made larger by the demand of the new state laws: as compulsion of the local board to furnish support for all poor who are quarantined, and often with the greatest care of the board of health this law is abused; the furnishing of antitoxin for diphtheria patients, inspection of milk and food; formaldehyde in place of sulphur, which is much more effective, though very much more expensive. In view of this extra expense, we recommend estimate of $300.00, exclusive of salaries.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. WRISLEY, M. D., Pres.,

FRED MOORE,

W. H. TRUE, M. D., Sec.,

Board of Health.

LACONIA HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

“The Laconia Hospital association was incorporated for the purpose of establishing and maintaining in Laconia a permanent hospital.” Thus far this has not fully been attained, though a hospital has been regularly in operation since July 18th, 1898, and maintained by this corporation. The fulfillment of this entire proposition seems at this time to be about to be consummated, for the period has arrived when a permanent hospital is unmistakably demanded. A hospital for those for any reason ill, or injured, seems to be as much of a necessity, as a matter of policy and economies, to say nothing of the tender regard and sentiment that we all feel for those who meet bodily misfortune, as any one of the necessities for those who are bodily well that have for all time been recognized as such.

A well equipped and well cared for hospital in a community is a means of education that should not be ignored. While people are well and strong their natural disposition is not to give this matter very much concern, but an institution in a community that teaches how to care for the sick is eminently essential and far reaching in its mission for good, not only in care of minor illnesses and injuries, but possibly in the greatest of disasters. A knowledge of the treatment of disease and accident carries with it a knowledge of prevention of disease which is the highest art of all medicine and nursing. Some times it is very essential that some prominent individual be cared for, and properly cared for, but an accurate knowledge of health preservation is more essential. Laconia must have a general hospital, of a permanent nature, and affording vastly more room than the little cottage on Court street can possibly afford. The city possesses population and wealth sufficient so that it not only demands such a structure and a competent corps of physicians, nurses and surgeons, but the trustees of the Laconia Hospital association feel assured that there are hundreds of generous persons in this immediate vicinity who crave the privilege of contributing proportionately of their resources to this great end. Fancy some little waif, sick with pneumonia, whose condition truly demands, if humanity ever demands, the attention of some skilled medical man and a nurse; or the same kind of a child ill with some grave abdominal affection that equally demands the attention of a surgeon and nurse; in either case in an illy ventilated chamber, cared for only by some relative, or possibly a playmate, wholly incompetent for such a task, and then consider what should be done, and what cannot be done, unless proper means are secured for the care, comfort, nourishment, nursing and medical attendance of this child, that knowledge pertaining to the sick teaches today.

This hospital for the last two years has maintained its previous record for becoming more and more self-sustaining, thus offering proof of its usefulness and practicability. We only need more room now in order that this work of charity and precept may continue to expand and become a permanent blessing to not only our own immediate neighborhood of towns about Laconia, but that its influence and example may be felt throughout the whole of the central and northern parts of New Hampshire.

The Laconia Cottage Hospital association has secured as a location for a permanent hospital one of the most beautiful tracts of land to be had anywhere, and situated right in the heart of the city, too, at the head of Spring street. On this spacious lot it is hoped, that by the aid of funds, that all are asked to contribute, an institution will be established, during the summer of 1906, that will be a great and lasting pride to every citizen of Belknap county.

A. H. HARRIMAN,

REPORT OF CITY AUDITOR.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of Laconia:

Having accepted the office of auditor of public accounts, I beg leave to submit the following report:

The various departments have been carefully examined by me, and the books verified, and vouchers found to correspond with the various accounts herein published, as follows:

I have examined the accounts of the city treasurer, city clerk, board of public works, and the books of the public library treasurer, city tax collector, fire department, and school department.

The financial exhibit of the city treasurer shows a balance on hand at the close of the fiscal year of . . . . .	$ 6,679.46

as compared with balance at close of last year . . . . .	1,948.07

Showing more balance on hand by the sum . . $ 4,731.39

The net indebtedness has increased this year by 6,900.47

I wish to call attention to the following figures as a comparison. The following balances in various appropriations unexpended will give some information as to the origin of the increase of the net debt:

BALANCE SUBJECT TO DRAFT.

Mechanic street school house . . . $ 6,842.53

Fire alarm . . . . . 2,267.58

Watchmen's clock . . . . . 12.19

Total . . . . . $ 9,122.30

In addition to above:

The balance of public works is . $ 6,688.86

Less balance at beginning of 1905 1,768.34

Excess balance over one year ago . $ 4,920.52

---

Making a total of . . . . . $14,042.82

Deficit as reported this year . . . . .	$14, 400.47
Deduct above balances . . . . .	14,042.82

Leaving real net increase of debt . . . $ 357.65

This seems to be a fair comparison, and serves to reveal the true source of the increased debt of the city.

The only error I have found in the books of the various departments is an error of one cent in itemizing the draft of July 1, 1905, in the department of public works. It was evidently an error in transcribing the amount of the July 1 payroll. Inasmuch as the footing corrects this error, it will make no change in the result. The footings are correct, but as Mr. Berry was out of town, I felt no liberty to make the necessary change in the item on the books. This explanation is due him, as well as myself.

In the statement of assets of the city, I find the following: Gilford tax list, $2,160.05. I find this item has been carried on the books as an asset for several years. It appearing to be of a very doubtful value I suggest to the Honorable Council the probable wisdom of charging off the amount from the books, thereby eliminating it from the assets of the city. I find this opinion seems to be shared by well-known citizens of your community.

I find that, in the trust funds of the city, in connection with the management of several cemeteries, various funds are accumulating, the income of which is paid by the city as trustee. These funds are held, in conformity with authority given in our general statutes, for the specific purpose of caring either for the cemetery, as a whole, or for specific lots. It seems to have been the custom, to pay bills, as presented, without any definite approval.

This has been done, not because of carelessness of any public official, but because of lack of a proper officer, to approve such bills, for and in behalf of said cemeteries. In such cases, as are handled by trustees, or other officers, of cemeteries, bills should be approved by someone duly authorized for that purpose. Where no association controls the cemetery, if in charge of the city, direct, the Honorable Council should, from year to year authorize some person, or persons, to approve all such bills, before payment.

This action will then remove any cause of criticism of any public official on this account. Furthermore, it will serve to invite further contribution to such trust funds. For, it will reveal, to possible contributors, the fact that the income of such trust funds, is carefully guarded for all time. Thus will be insured the faithful disposition of the income, as well as the principal, of any possible funds, in strict accordance with any deed of gift, that may from time to time be accepted by the "city fathers."

The coupons, notes, and bonds reported in the report of the treasurer as paid, during the year, have been carefully counted, and tabulated, and marked with the name of the auditor, and the word "Paid" in red ink, and have been filed away in the office of the city clerk, as vouchers.

This is not according to the custom of past years, but it seems to me that these should be preserved in the "archives" of the city as vouchers, for money paid out by the city treasurer, just as any other receipt. The above was done in the presence of the city clerk.

I have carefully examined the authority and duties of the auditor as conferred by the city council, at the time of the passage of the act, and have therefore taken the liberty to suggest a few slight changes in method of closing accounts in some departments. Such changes, are simply to clarify the books to a casual observer, and are of a trifling nature. It is not necessary to make further comment thereon, except to say it meets with the approval of the officers in charge, in every instance.

I wish to testify to the evident desire of all officials to furnish me with every facility to expedite and lessen my duties as auditor.

Permit me also to say I wish to be at all times ready to give careful attention to any and all suggestions, from any member of your board, or from the entire board, officially, during the term of office, or appointment, under which I may serve in the capacity of auditor.

Respectfully submitted,

March 3, 1906.

ARTHUR T. CASS.
